

10kW Data Center Battery Cabinet for Oilfield Use

Overview

Do data centers use lead-acid batteries?

Historically, most data centers depend on lead-acid batteries to power their UPS systems.

Which battery chemistry is best for a data center?

The lead-acid battery was the first chemistry used and remains popular today, but alternative battery chemistries such as lithium-ion and nickel-zinc offer compelling value propositions driving many data center end users and OEMs to switch to a new battery chemistry.

Are NiZn batteries a good choice for data center backup?

As rack-level compute density rises, so do the requirements for backup power in smaller, safer footprints. With their high power density, longer lifespan, sustainability and greater reliability, NiZn batteries are the ideal choice for backing up the increasing data center loads.
