Where to buy antique tiles in Portugal?

Located in the heart of Lisbon near the Alfama district, Solar Antiques is more than a shop. It is a temple dedicated to the azulejo. Widely considered the largest and most prestigious antique tile store in Portugal — and indeed Europe — Solar is a destination for serious collectors, designers, and enthusiasts.

Where are the best tile factories in Portugal?

Viúva Lamego (Lisbon): Founded in 1849, producing both traditional and contemporary tiles. Sant'Anna Factory (Lisbon): Established in 1741, still handcrafting tiles and faience. Bordallo Pinheiro Factory (Caldas da Rainha): Famous for whimsical cabbage-leaf ceramics and animal sculptures, iconic among collectors.

Why should you go tile shopping in Portugal?

Combine Shopping With Culture: Tile shopping pairs beautifully with private tours of Lisbon's tile-covered landmarks and even hands-on workshops where you can paint your own. Tiles in Portugal are far more than decoration. They are symbols of identity, artistry, and resilience — fragments of stories told in ceramic and glaze.
